with all my heart, and will glorify Thy name forever."*

Psalm 86:12

*To Know Him
And To Make Him Known*

*"For the equipping of the saints for the work of service, to the building up of the

Ephesians 4:12
CBCS Year verse, 1991

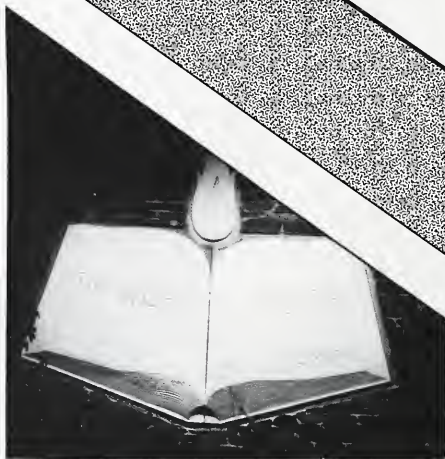

Student Life

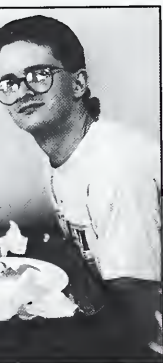

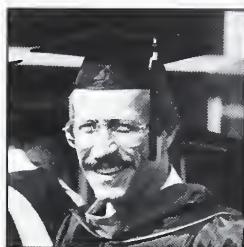

"My son, if you will receive my sayings, and treasure my commandments within you, make your ear attentive to wisdom, incline your heart to understanding; for if you cry for discernment, lift your voice for understanding; if you seek her as silver, and search for her as for hidden treasures; then you will discern the fear of the Lord, and discover the knowledge of God."

Proverbs 2:1-5

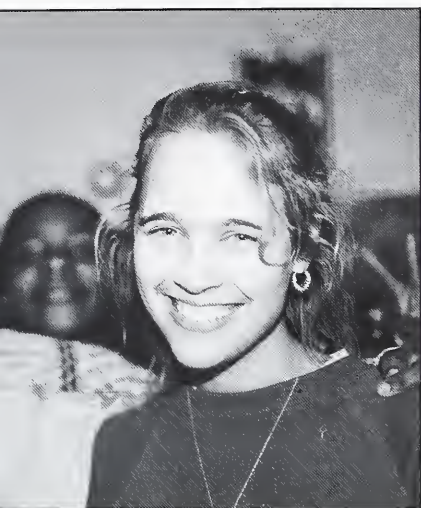

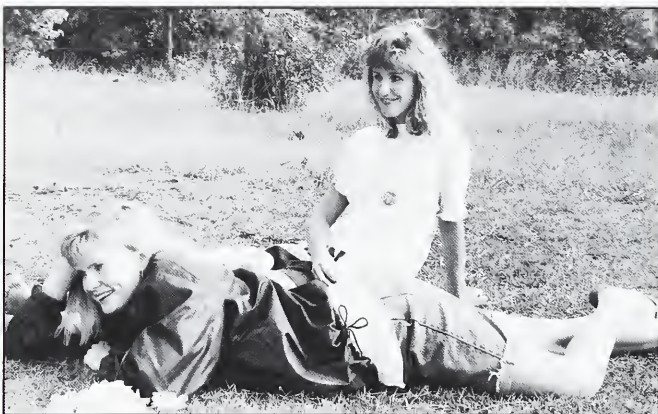

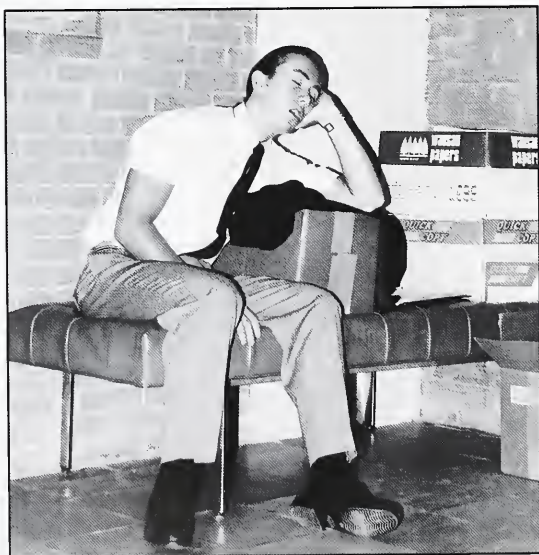

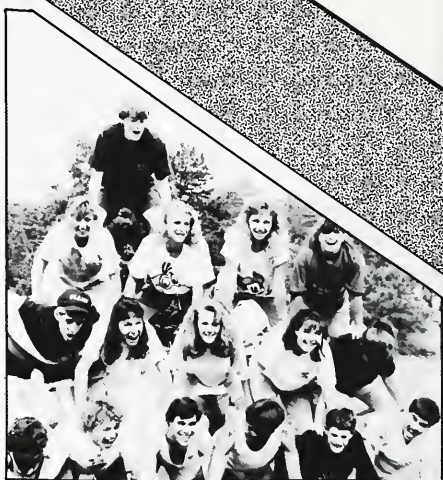

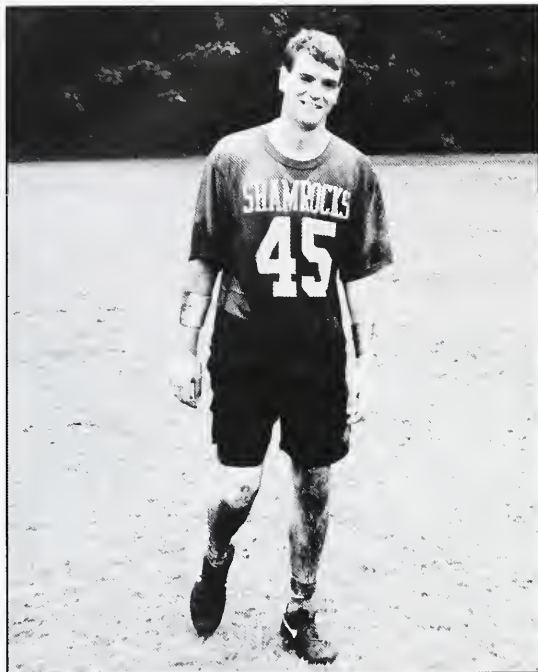

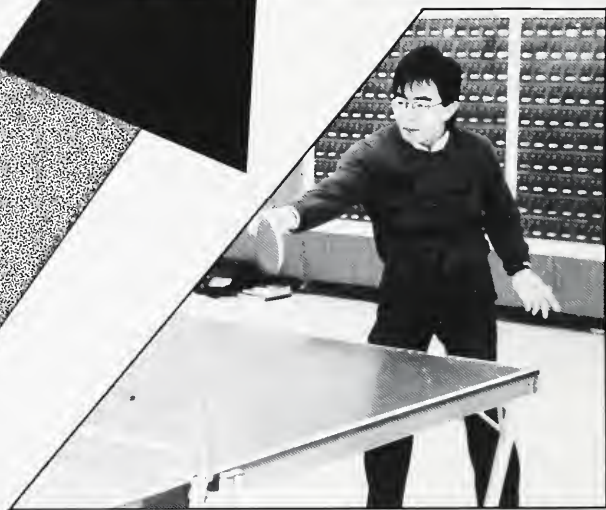

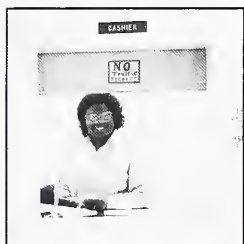

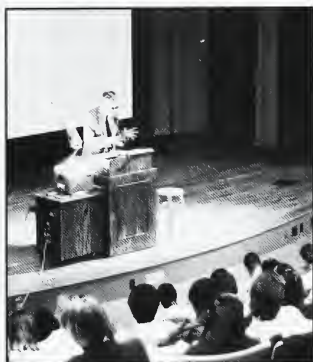

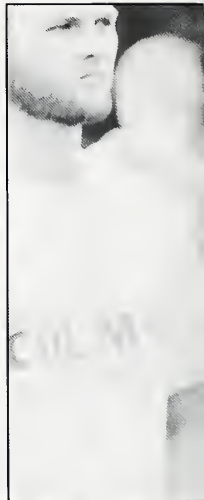

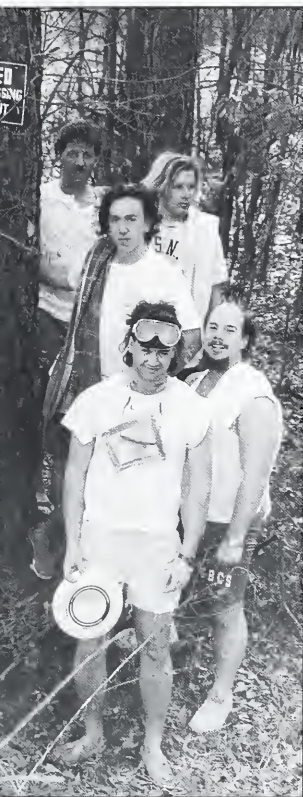

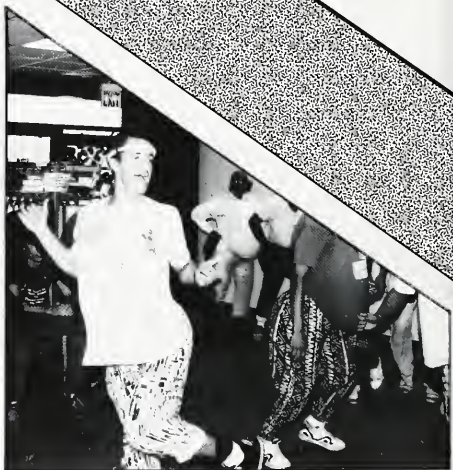

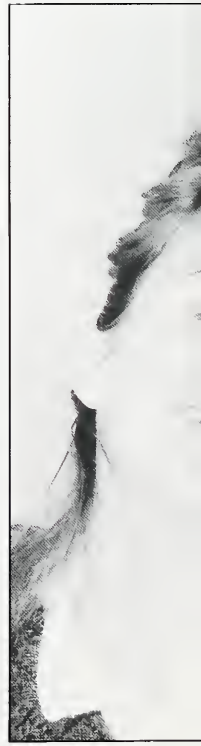

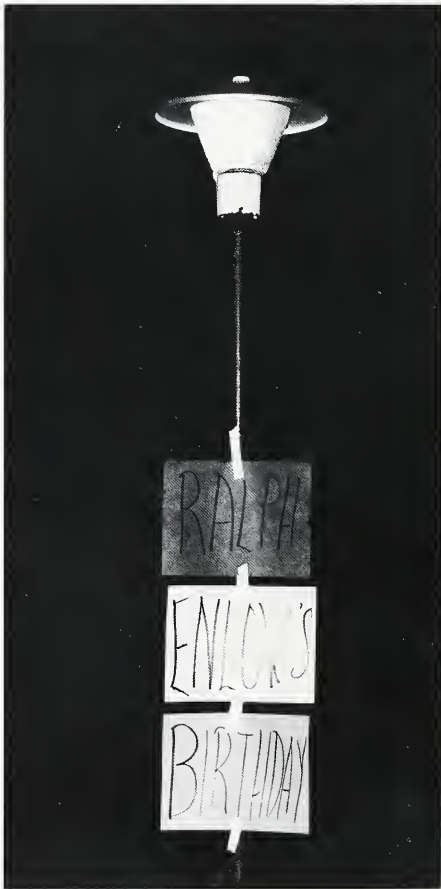

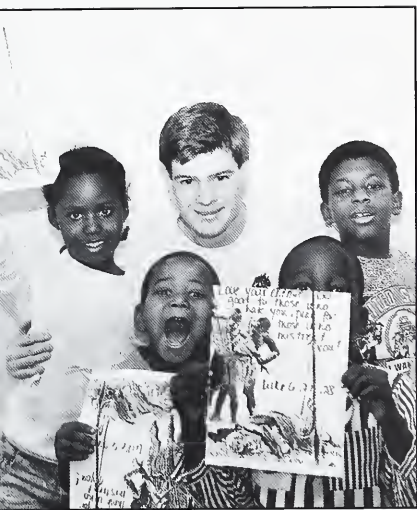

Seminary

*"Love must be sincere.
Hate what is evil; cling to what is good. Be devoted to one another in brotherly love.
Honor one another above yourselves.
Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervor, serving the Lord. Be joyful in hope, patient in afflic-tion, faithful in prayer.
Share with God's people who are in need. Practice hospitality."*

Vernon Salter finds a few moments to relax during probably one of the toughest years of his life yet. Vernon was one of many in the student body who had to leave mid-quarter due to the war in the Middle East. Many of us will never forget the words he spoke in chapel, because they so reminded us of the reason that we live, and the necessity of our willingness and contentment to do whatever God calls us to.

*"Put on the full armor of God, that you may be able to stand firm against the schemes of the devil.
For our struggle is not against flesh and blood,
but against the rulers,
against the powers,
against the world forces of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places."*

Ephesians 6:11,12

Coordinating Council

The CBCS Coordinating Council, as its name implies, coordinates the three branches of the student government and is comprised of the President and Vice-President of the Grad Life Council, of the Married Student Fellowship, and of the Student Association. Calvin Brain served as the presiding officer for the 1990 - 91 Council.

Together, along with Joe Parker as our faithful adviser, we met weekly to discuss issues that affected students, especially in this year of major transitions. Sparked by an S.A. survey, we pursued the need for revitalizing the residence halls and Student Center. Likewise, we all were compelled to see the bugs worked out of the new phone system. The Administration met with us to assure us that student concerns would be addressed. We also were responsible for the budgets of each student organization.

We also organized our three main traditional events. In October, a great many students gathered on the soccer field for a picnic-style supper; children were treated to games, and three wagons were required for hay rides. The Winter Banquet held at the Carolina Plaza Hotel in early March was an enormous success, due largely to our uniquely talented singer Jerome Olds. Finally in April, we sponsored our annual Pig-Pickin' near the Point with some down-home music. In his normal heroic fashion, Mr. Leavel bailed us out of a jam as we were running low on BB/Q.

Our greatest joy, however, was to meet with newly-named President Dr. Johnny Miller. We all look with confidence to what God will do through him for the student body at CBCS.

Jeff Johnston, 1990-91 member

Grad Life Council

To Jeff, Dina, Dave, Barb, and Karen I express my gratitude for their gargantuan demonstration of loving service to you the graduate student body. They are a willing and gifted group of people who have served you tirelessly, and you have frequently reaped the rewards of their giftedness.

The general purpose of the Grad Life Council stems from the acronym LIFE, meaning "Living Interaction For Edification." Together our prayer has been that God would use our service to the honor of His name and to the edification of you His saints.

Calvin S. Brain, Grad Life president

The Student Association

The Student Association was active this year in sponsoring many activities for the student body. Among these were Esrever and Esnopser, both in the fall and spring quarters, the Winter Banquet, the Pig Pickin', the blood drives, and various movie nights.

One of our chief desires this year was to get the older students, married students, and off-campus students more involved than they had been in previous years. It is our hope that this goal was partially accomplished by some of the S.A. sponsored activities.

Our thanks to those of you who donated your time to make these events successful!

S.A. Cabinet members this year were: Clint Gilliam, President; Tim Jenson, V.P.; Jennifer Taylor, sec; and Dr. Enlow, advisor.

Student Mission Fellowship

SMF is a student-run organization, designed to give the students and outlet for the knowledge learned at CBCS. The concentration this year has been in the areas of prayer, giving, and going. During the Fall Quarter, SMF challenged students by sponsoring the GO Conference.

World Christian Week was SMF's highlight of Winter Quarter, with an emphasis on being a "World Christian."

Throughout the entire school year, SMF worked to provide students the opportunity to be involved in a summer missions project in West Java. Known as Operation Sundanese, this opened up a means by which the students could practice prayer, giving, as well as going.

Through this and many other activities, CBCS students were able to be involved in SMF, and ultimately, in God's global cause.

SMF members: Jim Warkentine, president; Vernon Satter, vice-president; Lisa Sladek, secretary; Lisa Simpson, treasurer; Dr. Hoyt, advisor.

Pi Gamma Wives Fellowship

Pi Gamma, the student wives fellowship, had an interesting and exciting year through a variety of events and projects.

The theme for the year was "United in Spirit, Intent on One Purpose", and the organization sought as a group to grow spiritually together in unity with the purpose of becoming more Christ-like every day.

Wives were challenged at meetings by such speakers as Jack Layman, Brian Kingsmore, and Vickie Germann, and enjoyed the many annual events, such as the Fall Craft Fair, Christmas Festival, and the Sweetheart Banquet. Other events included the Bakes Sales, a Pi Gamma Prayer Night, and participation in the ministry of Project Angel Tree.

President - Lisa Despres; Vice-president - Pam Everle; Secretary/Treasurer - Loyda Groff; Coordinators: Donna Miller, Nicki Ludlum, Maryann Sarazani, Beverly Strobolakos, Alma Hunsicker, Lynn Lowther; Faculty Advisor - Mrs. Ann Mulholland.

Student Foreign Mission Fellowship

The Student Foreign Missions Fellowship, a regional organization dedicated to raising workers for the harvest, has its southeast division headquarters located on the CBCS campus. This year CBCS students contributed greatly to three major areas of SFMF.

During Fall Quarter many students attended the annual GO conference, held in Rock Eagle, Georgia, and heard such speakers as Donald Hoke and Doug Birdsall. The theme of the conference, "I will not offer Jesus my King That Which Costs Me Nothing," challenged students to be willing to sacrifice whatever the Lord would ask.

During Spring Break SFMF sponsored both the Travel Teams and an evangelistic opportunity called "Reach The Beach."

The travel team work was very successful in its purpose of challenging students and church members to see the need of bringing the gospel to a dying world.

Six teams, each consisting of four or five people, traveled throughout the southeast, visiting schools, colleges, and churches, performing skits, mimes, giving a biblical basis for missions through testimonies, question-and-answer times, and short talks on the lost world outside.

The "Reach The Beach" program was an equally exciting and successful time of ministry, as the Lord worked in people's lives. CBCS students were able to spend the entire spring break on the shores of Myrtle Beach, sharing the gospel with other students and vacationers. Several people were saved, and the Lord worked as well in the hearts of those who went, rekindling the fire of evangelism in them.

The Holy Land Tour

Holy Land Study Tour Offers Students Exciting Opportunities

CBCS students took advantage of the opportunity to study in Israel at Columbia's Institute Of Holy Land Studies located on Mt. Zion in Jerusalem. We all returned agreeing that this is an experience that should not be passed up.

Studying in the Holy Land touched our lives in such a way that is really unexplainable. The sights, the sounds, the smells, the people, the land -- all somehow engraved themselves on us and we fell in love with the land.

Just to experience another culture and to meet different people is exciting, but to be able to study the Bible in the Land of the Bible is so much more exciting. No other location can provide this experiential background for knowing the Bible.

One student wrote in "From Mt. Zion," the Institute's newsletter: "Seeing -- in living panorama -- the terrain on which the events took place, travelling along the routes of the patriarchs and kings, walking the shores where Jesus led His disciples, feeling the winds that rocked their boats, eating the foods they depended on... these and much more vivify the reality of the Word of God as it is studied on site."

Taking one of Columbia's "Courses at the Source" was a life-changing experience that will have a lasting impact on our personal reading and study of God's Word as we press on "to Know Him," and will leave an indelible mark on our sharing the Word as we seek "to Make Him Known."

STREETLIGHT PLAYERS

The drama team uses a series of skits to present its message. Both the light and the serious have an impact on the audience. This team had special opportunities to present the gospel to new recruits at Fort Jackson several times this year, as well as ministry to churches, youth groups, and prisons in the area.

Team members:

Raina Thomas, Tom O'Brien, Chuck Peters, Bruce Ladson, Catherine Louthan, Kelly Langston-Smith, Heather Reader, Tim Pfeiffer, Gerald Shealy.

CELEBRATION SINGERS

Celebration is a vocal ensemble which proclaimed the truth of God through music and personal testimony. The group ministered in churches, youth gatherings, prisons, retirement homes – actually, wherever the door was open for the team members. Throughout the year the team travelled many miles over the southeast, stretching weekends in order to share Christ with others.

Team members:

Karen Ammons, Janelle Sensenig, Robin Gillmore, Amy Brower, Gary Weeks, Jonathon Melchior, Donna Krieger (director), Tim Steele (audio technician).

No Strings Attached

The CBCS puppet team was able to reach children as well as adults in a very unique way throughout the year. Using the gifts of music and the imagination, the team used the theme of Christ's love with "no strings attached" to open people's hearts.

Team members:

Barbara Blink, leader; Heather Lowe; Ginny Cartee; Pam Teele; and Alice Dearborn.

The Finial Yearbook

The Finial yearbook staff, a rather unique group of artists, worked throughout the year and into the summer to complete this book for the student body.

The task of producing the Finial was made slightly more complicated this year due to a carry-over of debt from previous years' books, but the Lord proved faithful in providing funds through a number of different means. The Phil Keaggy concert, held in February, was a great success, and the proceeds from it were given to the Finial account. Other financial support was given as well through the hard work of the Coordinating Council and Dean Slade.

By the end of the year the Finial staff was able to purchase a new computer for design and layout, a step which greatly enhanced the capabilities of the office staff. This purchase was a great time-saver in doing many previously tedious activities, and it offered the staff a way to step out creatively, as well as giving a glance into the world of computer graphics and desktop publishing.

Our special thanks to those staff who went far beyond their duty to help us in compiling information as well as in the financial work. To Dean Slade, for your financial help; to Sandy Rockwell, for help with all those addresses; to Jim Lassiter, our advisor, for signing our checks; and, to Mary Bisesi, for putting up with our cluttered office and loud music—thank you.

The Final Yearbook

Our theme this year, "On The Cutting Edge", was an attempt to capture the thrill of involvement in the Lord's work here at CBCS. Throughout the year it was thrilling to see the many exciting things the Lord was doing here, from the choice of our new president to the many works of grace He brought through students' Field Ed. assignments.

Hopefully in these pages you have been reminded of the joys and excitement of the events which took place this year, but we hope that you will be reminded more of the One who is ready and able to continue that work in anyone who is completely sold out to Him.

Eta Beta Rho is now on campus! In October, the newly-organized ninth chapter of this national honor society held its first meeting in the McKey Dining Room. Sponsored by the National Association of Professors of Hebrew in Institutions of Higher Learning, the society's purpose is to recognize outstanding attainment in the study of the Hebrew language and literature, to stimulate study and research in the field, and to promote an understanding and appreciation of the culture of Israel.

This year, Eta Beta Rho members kept their knowledge of the Hebrew language alive through further study of the Old Testament text. In addition, the local chapter progressed in its understanding of the Jewish culture through participation in a Passover Seder with a local messianic congregation.

The elected officers for the 1990-91 year were Istifanus Sanga, President; Deborah Jugend, Vice-President; Margaret Young, Secretary; and Michael Babcock, Treasurer. The faculty advisors were Dr. Brian Beyer, Dr. Paul Ferris, Jr., and Dr. Alex Luc.

The Middle East

Many at CBCS met the reality of the war in the Gulf in a personal way, as roommates, classmates, and friends were suddenly called to duty for the country.

For some who went it was a job, for others, duty; yet we all felt the space left when another classmate left for the service. In their positions of service many were able to reach out to those in need around them, challenging us all to be a light wherever we are planted.

Though there is not adequate room or time to list the involvement of these our brothers & sisters in the war, we leave these photos to remind us of their courage and willingness to lay their lives on the line.

Sports & Intra-murals

There are many advantages to playing intramural sports at CBCS than just the obvious reason of enjoying playing a particular sport. For those athletes who simply love to play basketball, football, soccer, softball, volleyball, etc., there are plenty of capable and active participants in each sport to challenge your skills and raise the level of ones on ability. This activity also serves to keep a person in good physical condition. But there is much more. Being involved in intramurals provides a great way to meet people in the other divisions of schools that one would normally never get to meet. It is also an opportunity to learn teamwork.

What a great advantage it would be to a person if in every aspect of life they were able to work together with other people to achieve a common goal! Intramurals is also a place where life long friendships are begun. It is also a place where we can learn more about ourselves. The heat of competition can often show where there are areas of our lives where we need to mature.

Being involved in intramurals is an excellent way to develop the strong and mature Christian character that is so needed in serving God in any and every ministry. I can say from personal experience that intramurals at CBCS has done all of these things for me and more. I would highly recommend it.

Colophon

The 1991 edition of the Finial was published by Herff Jones Company in Montgomery, Alabama. Nine hundred and fifty copies were printed. All pages were printed on 80lb stock paper.

The primary type face is Helvetica in 12 point font with 14 point leading. The index is in 10 point, as are most of the name copy sections. All type is condensed to 80% width, and is given tight tracking. Most headlines are in 48 point Freestyle Script created and rotated via Macintosh computer.

All spreads except the Student Life section were designed by the editor and Michele Mitchell on a Macintosh computer system. The Student Life section design is by Alison Brewer Peck.

The cover can be blamed on all three of the above. . .

Retrospect

When all is said and done, more was said than done.

Somebody important said that (I think it was my dad), and I'm beginning to believe it.

Well, here it is. Though we may have had the wildest dreams, somehow they just didn't look quite the same when funneled down onto paper. Maybe it was for lack of enough coffee. Or too many Randy Stonehill albums. Anyway, after uncountable numbers of nights at the computer, and mountains of trashed designs, we have concluded. Or at least we came to a truce.

That must be the way it is in life. You dream, work, and sweat blood, and in the end, you have almost as much as you started with.

The Lord has been quite faithful throughout this project, despite our own failures and lack of trust. Maybe He isn't looking for the perfect project. Or even the perfect life. I think He may just be looking for those who are tired of attempting the perfect. I never found instant sanctification while sitting in class, did you? But I did find Someone who really cared about my sickness and bad grades, and who was still there when all those dreams came apart, despite the long hours of hard work.

I don't wish you all the warm fuzzies. Or even health, wealth, and all of that garbage. As you turn these pages, remember the good times. And the bad times. Maybe all isn't roses now. Probably not. But remember the One who has been through everything we have, and is familiar with our difficulties. And remember that He longs to use the pieces to put together something much more valuable than we can imagine.

The editor.
